CRISES BLAME

Thinking about issues with illegal immigration and the southern border, who do you blame for the current crises?

TEXAS' RIGHT TO PROTECT ITSELF

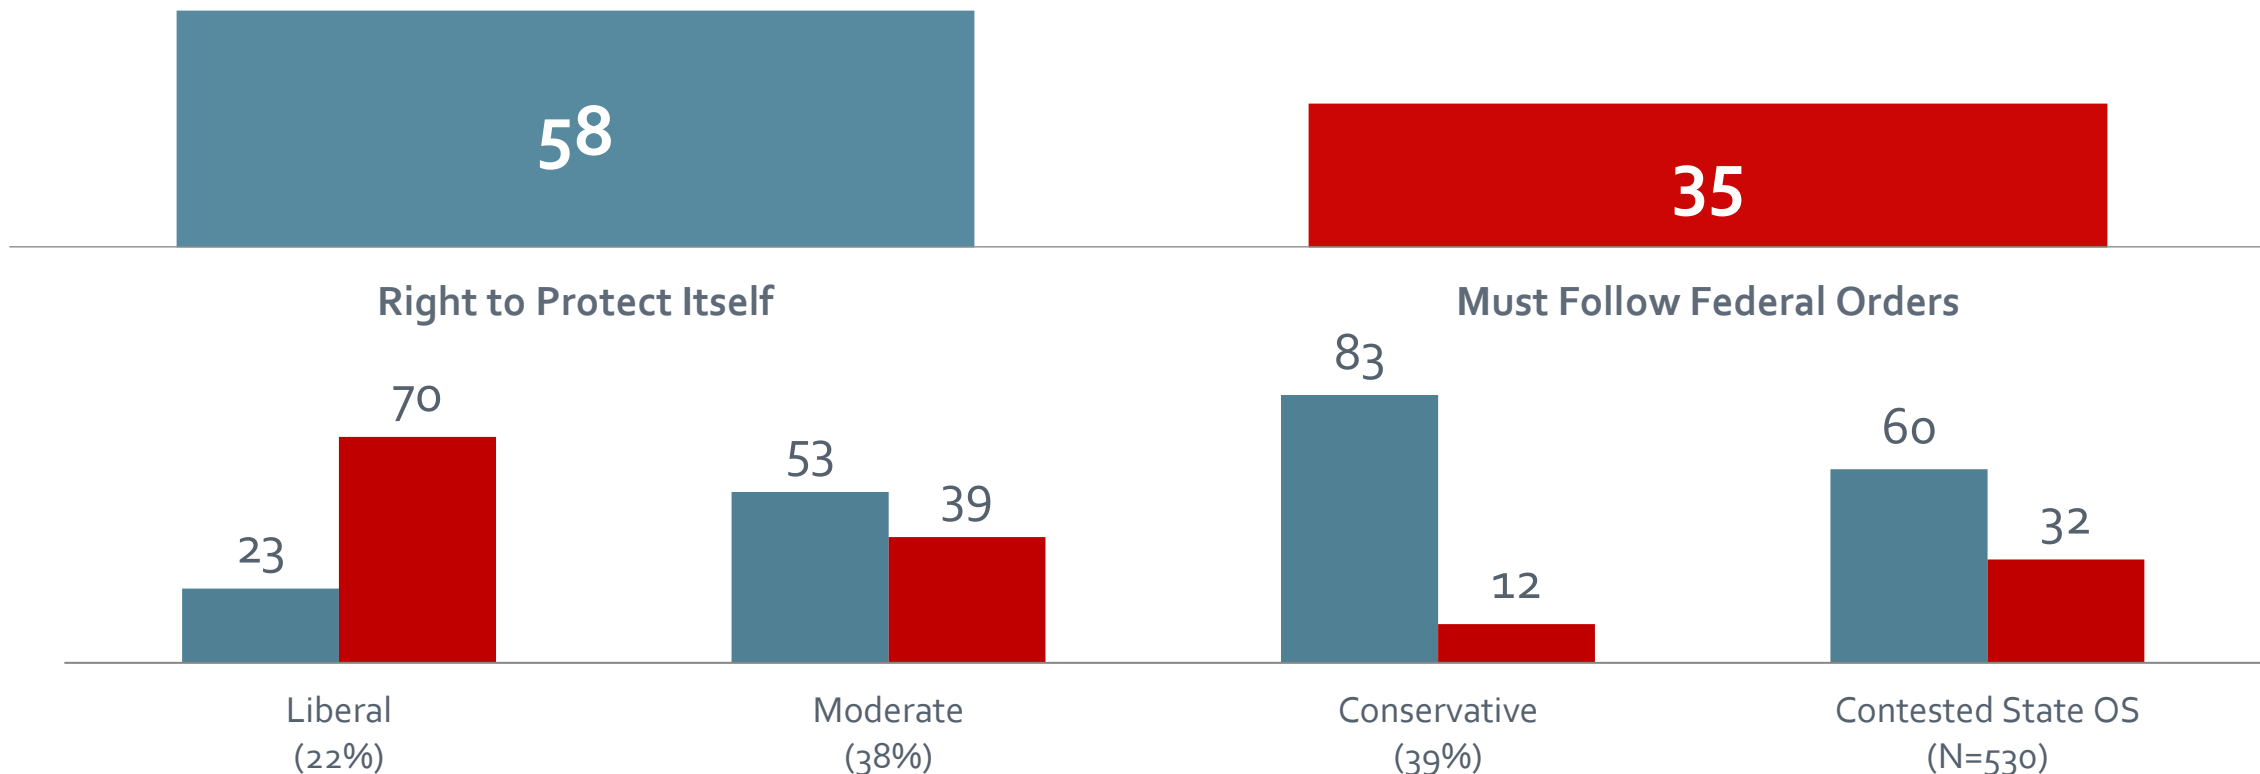

As you may know, to fight against illegal immigration, Texas' National Guard has created barriers, including razor wire, to secure major areas of illegal crossings on its border with Mexico. Recently, President Biden has tried to use federal border agents to take down these barriers, saying that Texas does not have the power to overrule the federal government's border policy. Do you support or oppose Texas' efforts to protect its own border with Mexico?

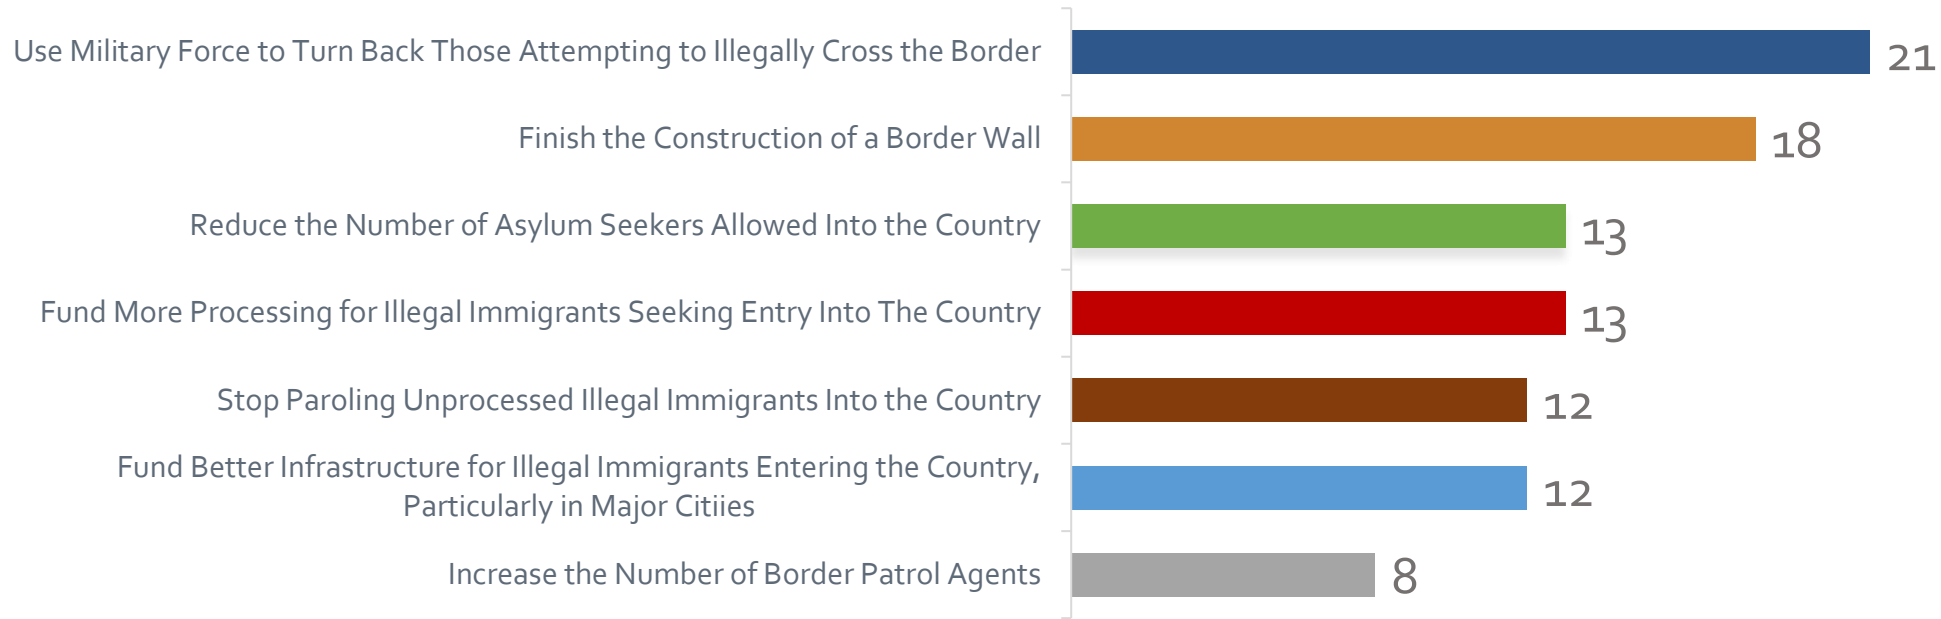

Thinking again about the clash between Texas and the Biden Administration over illegal immigration enforcement, which of the following statements comes closest to your opinion?

Some say that Texas has the right to protect itself from illegal immigration and security threats, especially if the Biden Administration fails to address illegal immigration and secure the southern border.

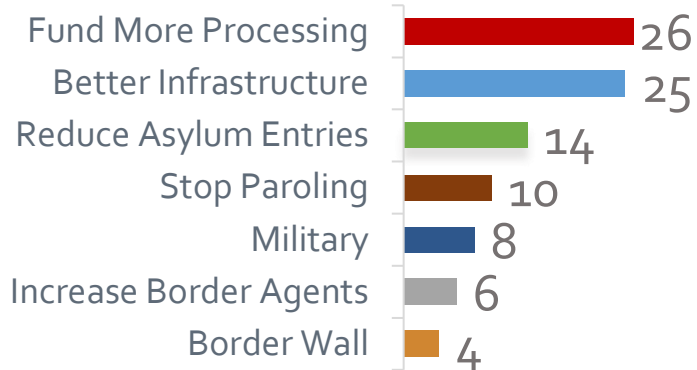

Others say that the federal government has authority over international borders and that Texas must follow federal orders, whether they agree with them or not.

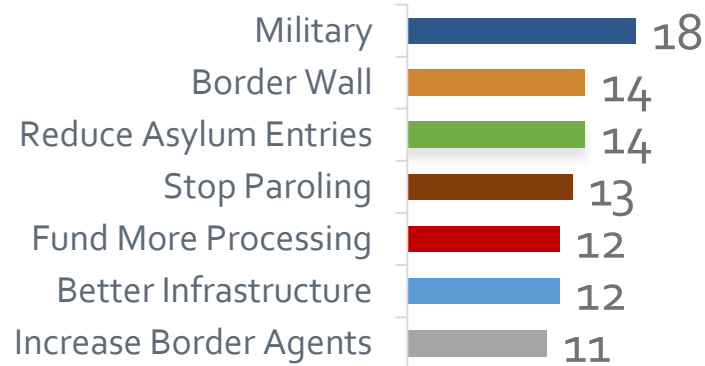

Thinking about ways to address illegal immigration and the southern border, if you could only pick one, which of the following would be your top priority?

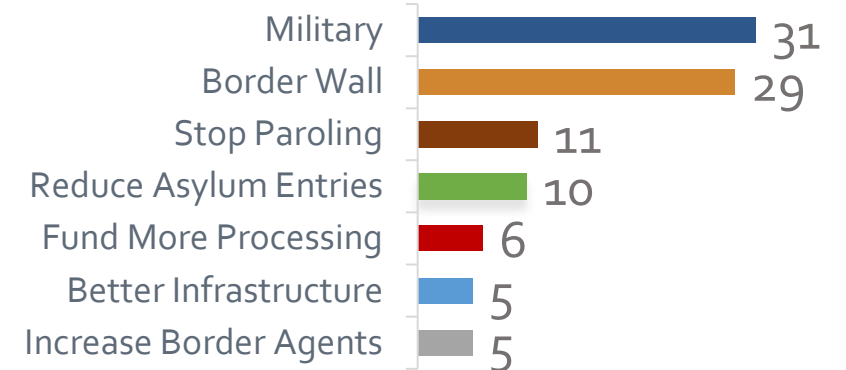

Among Liberals (22%):

Among Moderates (38%):

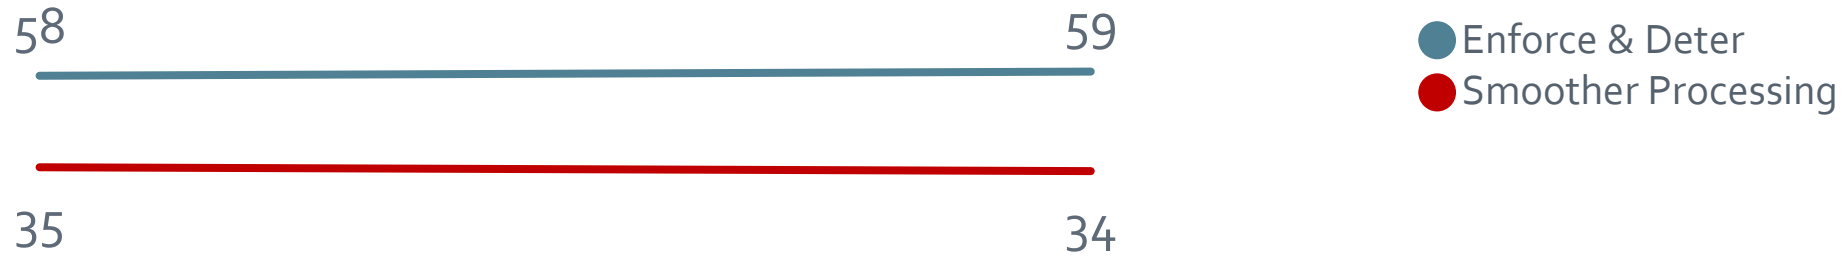

Among Conservatives (39%):

Which of these policy approaches do you support more?

Some say that we should enforce the border and deter illegal immigration by finishing the wall, allowing border agents to deport illegal migrants, and stopping the policy of letting unprocessed migrants into the country.

Others say that we should focus on better funding for our processing of migrants and asylum seekers so that there is less strain on our infrastructure and a smoother process for entering the country.

ENERGY

LETS ADVERSARIES DOMINATE

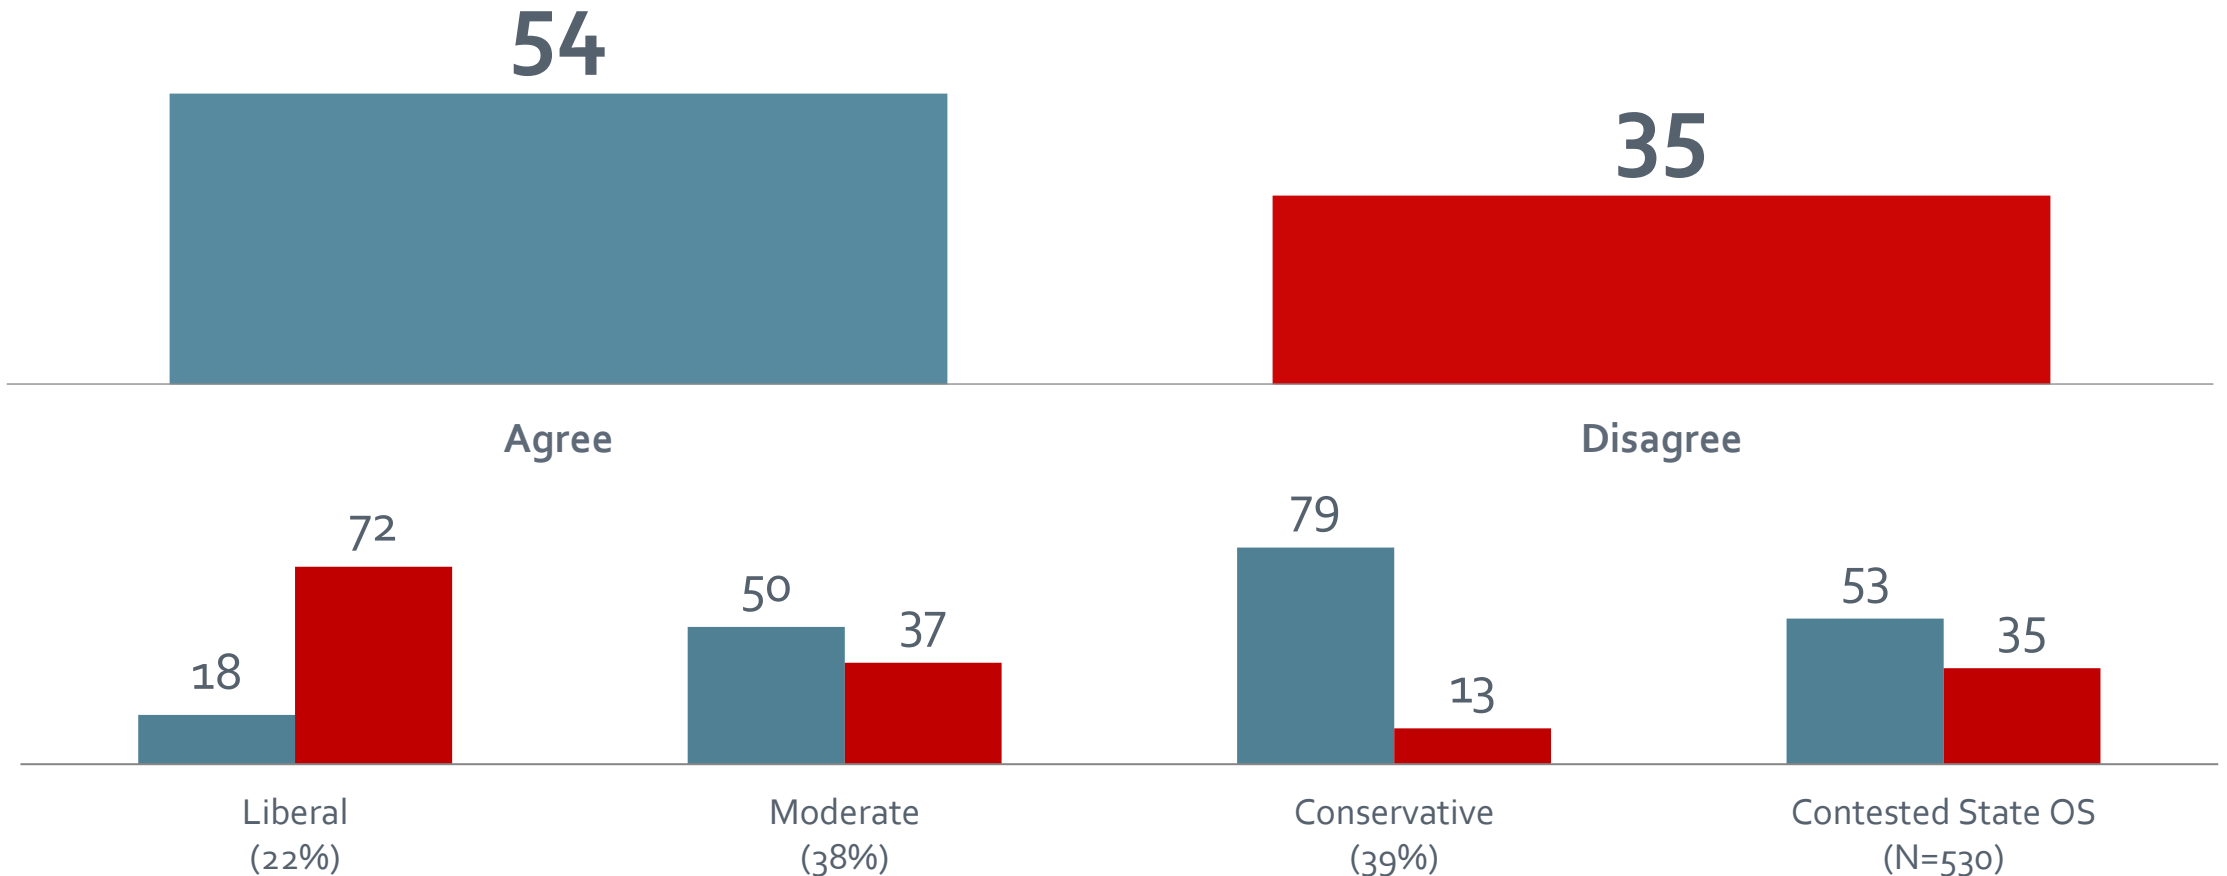

Please tell me if you agree or disagree with the following statement:

“Pausing the approval of liquified natural gas exports locks up America’s natural resources and lets foreign adversaries dominate international energy.”

HURTS MORE THAN HELPS

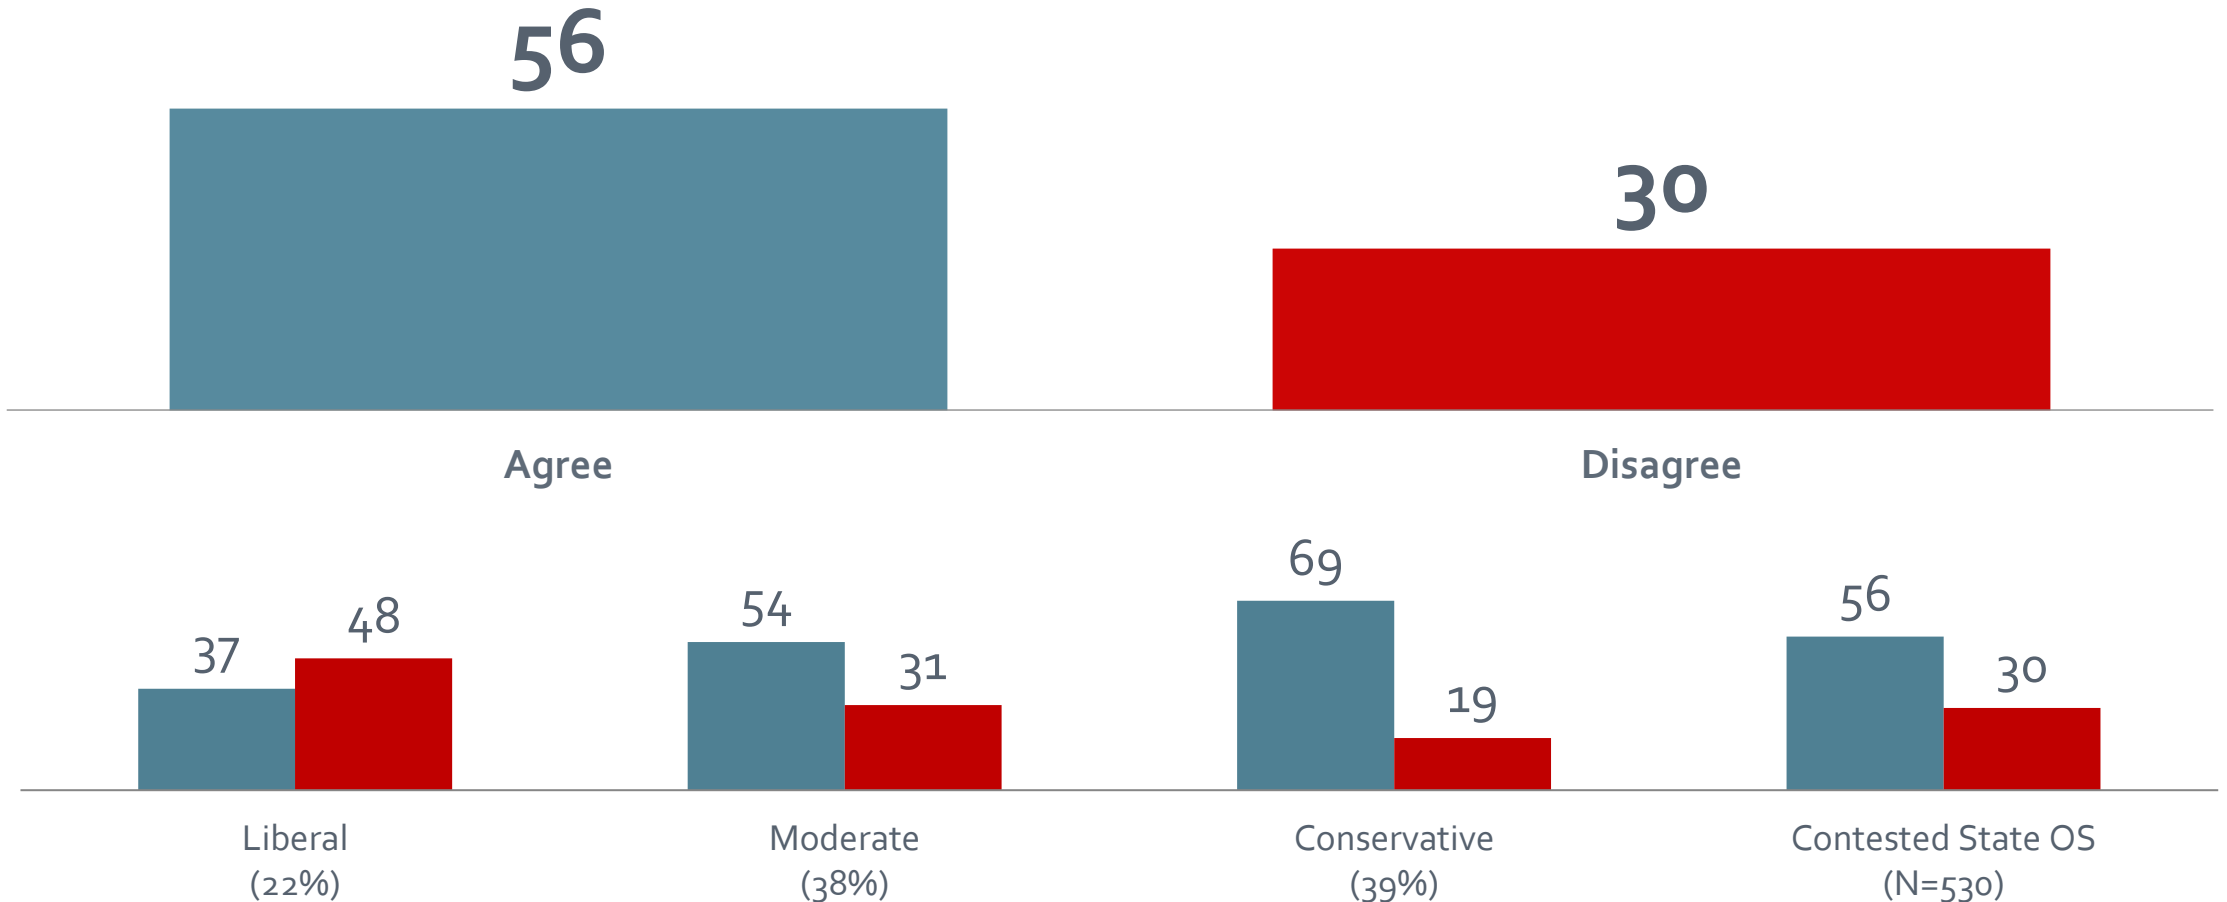

Please tell me if you agree or disagree with the following statement:
"President Biden's approach to energy hurts America more than it helps."

DELAYS ENERGY EFFICIENCY

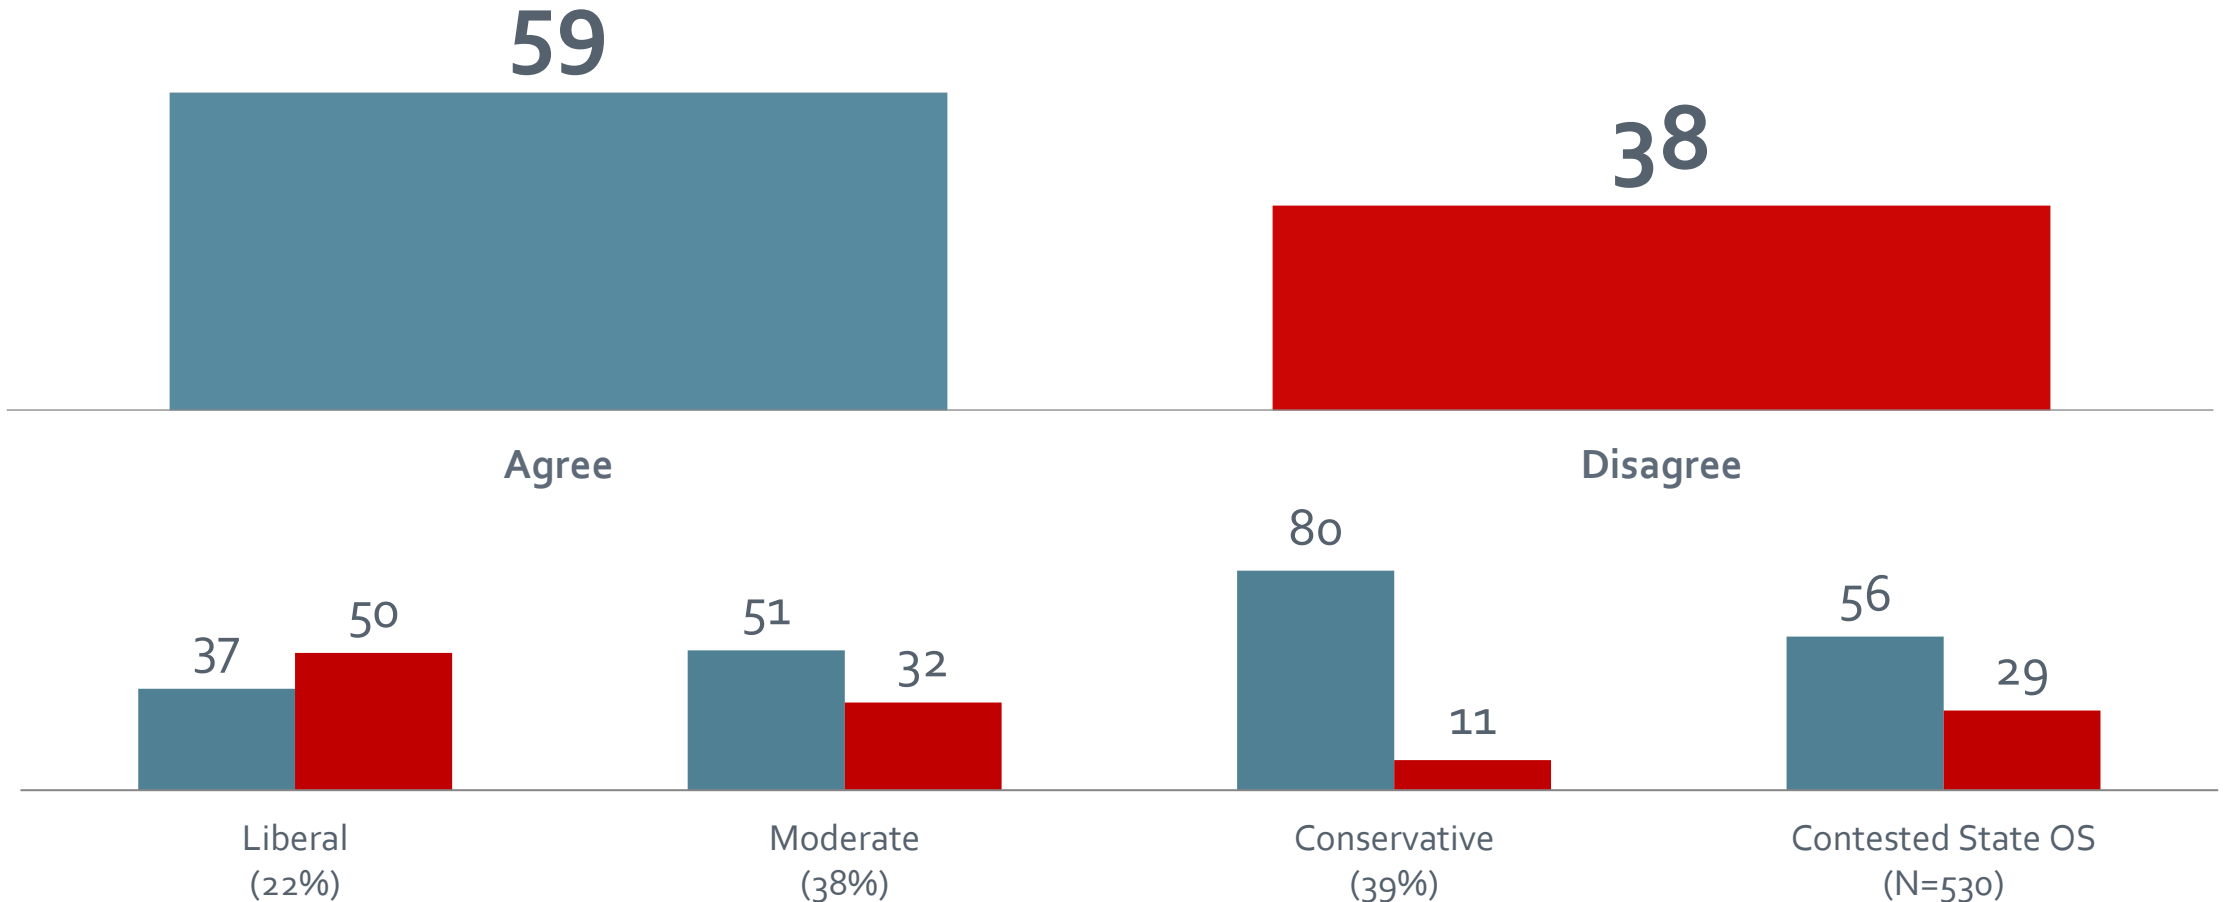

Please tell me if you agree or disagree with the following statement:

“Pausing the permitting process delays American energy innovation and slows down our path to being a more energy efficient country.”

FALLING BEHIND

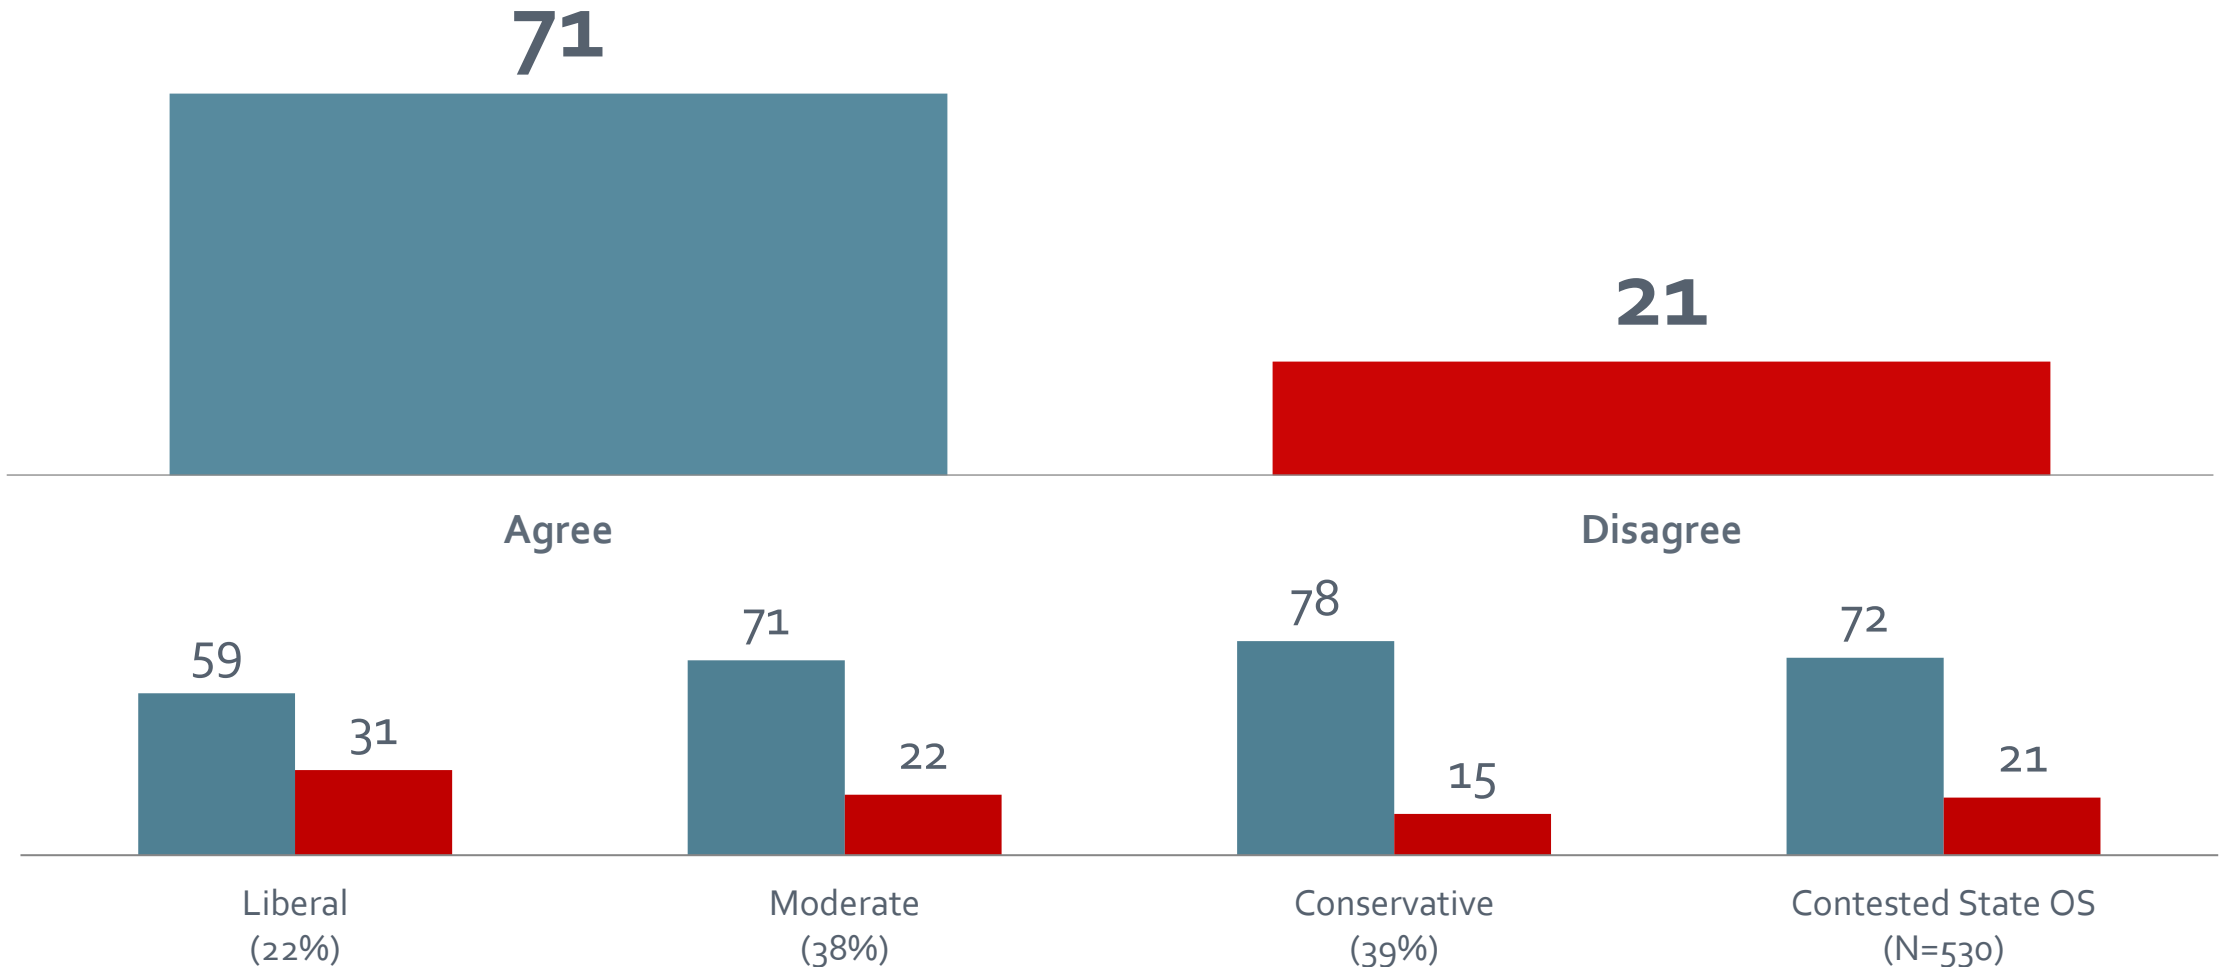

Please tell me if you agree or disagree with the following statement:
"Handcuffing America's ability to export natural resources makes our country fall behind while adversaries like Russia increase their profits."

SHOULDN'T LIMIT PRODUCTION

Please tell me if you agree or disagree with the following statement:

“While America works towards innovation in renewable energies like solar and wind power, we shouldn't limit our production in other forms of energy.”
